CHARLES STREET THEATRE, BALTIMORE, FOR rent.—This beautiful and fashionable theatre, at the corner of Baltimore and Charles streets, is offereddor rent, for one year or longer, from the close of the present season. During the past two seasons is has been well attended by the best portion of our clitices; and notwithstanding the general depression of theseviness all over the country, the propristor believes that business has been profitable to an extent which warrants the assertion that, with a good compley and attractive performances, it must prove towards to the manner hereafter. It is in good repair, and has lately been much improved in ventilation, rendering it one of the meet comfortable and airy theatres in the city. A trifling outlay would place it in such a condition as to rank second to no establishment in the country as regards beauty, neateness and elightility of location. For terms, address Wis. W. McCLELLAN, Battimon. Md.

A COSTUMIER, WHO HAS HAD UNLIMITED EXPE-rience in some of the principal theatres in Europe and America, wishes for a similar situation. This city preferred. Commands left for Mr. N. B. CLARKE, box office, Broad-way theatre.

The PUBLIC.—OBSERVING IN THE NEW YORK
I. Berald of this morning a communication, signed "One of the Exhibitors," reflecting upon the integrity of the management of the grand National Baby Show at Barnum's Museum, I feel it a duty to pronounce the statements in that communication wholly untrue.

The simple reason why the prize of $50 for the "finiteet child under 16" was not awaried to the "beautiful girl from Brooklyn," may be found in two facts. In the figst place, showns too old, (by her own account,) and in the second, cheing beyond the prescribed age.) she could obtain no certicheate, and hence could form me recognized part of the Baby Baby Show even another wock. The idea of extending 18 we four was never entertained.

The "beautiful fat girl from Brooklyn," having been callbited publicly in England, had engaged to exhibit herself at the American Museum for four weeks after the Baby Show was over. This may account for the misrepresentation alluded to.

If there he one exhibitor dissessinded, or one disposed to luied to.

If there be one exhibitor dissatisfied, or one disposed to assert that he or abe has not been treated with liberality as as well as perfect fairness throughout, it is certainly unknown to, yours truly,
